J-I Work Travel Program

The work/travel program is an exchange visitor program designed to give foreign university students the opportunity to have a cultural experience while working in the United States during their summer breaks. The maximum program length is 4 months and fits well with companies located in seasonal destinations.

Come live and work in the United States and be exposed to many different people and our way of life. Share your culture with us.

J-I WORK TRAVEL

The Work and Travel is an exchange program designed to promote educational and cultural awareness around the world. Every year over half a million college students arrive in the United States for a cultural exchange program and are able to work in a seasonal position as a temporary employee and enjoy travel opportunities. These participants meet new friends, exchange ideas, earn money, and travel the vast expanses of the United States.

Highlights and requirements include:

- Up to a 4 month Visa and support through SEVIS (Student Exchange Visitor Information System).
- Successfully complete at least one semester or equivalent of post-secondary academic study.
- Sufficient proficiency in the English language to successfully interact with native English speakers
- Approved Host Employer job offer
- Worker's Compensation and medical insurance provided.
- Travel upon completing your work agreement
- Sufficient funds to support yourself

Participants must be 18 - 28 years old with an intermediate level of English language proficiency and enrolled in a four year university.
